Dear Mrs Parlow

Many thanks for your letter

We had a huge children's party last night, and I am sorry to say that this morning Louise is in a state of collapse, suffering with a most terrible headache, so I do not appear this afternoon. You will understand that it is on account of this. If, when I go home, I find she is well too well to go out, we will come next Saturday afternoon instead. But I hope this will not be necessary. I shall be disappointed if we have to put it off. So glad you are not dismayed at the idea of paying us a visit that the other extreme is not! Yours truly, Edith Wall.

Mrs Parlow,
